Mississippi law allows sole proprietors, partners in a partnership, or corporate employees owning fifteen percent (15%) or more of stock in a corporation to reject workers' compensation coverage for themselves. Each sole proprietor, partner in a partnership, or employee owning fifteen percent (15%) or more of stock in a corporation wishing to be excluded from coverage under the Workers' Compensation Act in accordance with Mississippi Code Ann. § 71-3-5 must sign the following and affix their title.

Effective immediately, this form applies to all policies written through Stonetrust Commercial Insurance Company unless rescinded in writing by the sole proprietor, partner, or corporate employee. It must be signed by each individual seeking to be excluded under the policy.

I attest that:

I am a sole proprietor, partner in a partnership, or corporate employee owning fifteen percent (15%) or more of stock in

(Named Insured or Corporation)

I/we, the undersigned do hereby elect to reject and be exempt from workers' compensation coverage under this policy. This election shall apply but is not limited to all trades, businesses or occupations conducted by the insured's corporations, partnerships or sole proprietorships.
